CONVENTION CENTER DISTRICT / CHINATOWN

Anchored by the Pennsylvania Convention Center, this bustling district is also home to Reading Terminal Market, Pennsylvania Academy of the Fine Arts and Chinatown’s famed Friendship Gate.

SEE: Snap a selfie in front of Robert Indiana’s iconic LOVE statue in LOVE PARK, then cross the street to DILWORTH PARK (centercityphila.org) outside City Hall, which features special events throughout the year, including an outdoor ice skating rink in the winter. CITY HALL (philadelphia.gov), the largest municipal building in the United States, is built in the Second Empire style and adorned with Alexander Calder statues. Head to the visitor center inside for a tour, which includes a stop at the open-air observation deck at the base of the William Penn statue atop the building.

DO: Delve further into the city’s architectural history with an expert-led walking tour with the CENTER FOR ARCHITECTURE AND DESIGN (philadelphiacfa.org). After, stop at MACY’S (macys.com), located in the landmark Wanamaker Building, for some retail therapy. In addition to great tax-free shopping, this architectural gem is known for its impressive Grand Court, bronze eagle statue and restored 1904 pipe organ (one of the largest in the world).

DINE: In Chinatown, enjoy authentic Chinese dishes at SANG KEE PEKING DUCK HOUSE (sangkeechinatown.com), which has been making its famed Hong Kong-style Peking Duck since 1980. For an Asian spin on bar food, stop by BAR-LY (bar-ly.com), which also boasts an impressive selection of craft beers.

OLD CITY / SOCIETY HILL / WATERFRONT

Discover America’s spirit in the city where it all began at Independence National Historical Park with iconic sites like Independence Hall and the Liberty Bell.

SEE: Check out the many impactful museums in the neighborhood, including the AFRICAN AMERICAN MUSEUM IN PHILADELPHIA (aampmuseum.org), offering engaging exhibits like Audacious Freedom: African Americans in Philadelphia 1776-1876; the NATIONAL MUSEUM OF AMERICAN JEWISH HISTORY (nmajh.org), showcasing the 360-year history of Jewish people in the U.S.; the SCIENCE HISTORY INSTITUTE (sciencehistory.org), illustrating how chemistry has impacted the world; and the NATIONAL LIBERTY MUSEUM (libertymuseum.org), exploring themes of diversity and inclusion, civic engagement and leadership.

DO: The DELAWARE RIVER WATERFRONT (delawareriverwaterfront.com) is a year-round destination for family-friendly, seasonal activities—including Independence Blue Cross RiverRink Winterfest in the fall/winter and Summerfest and Spruce Street Harbor Park in the spring/summer. Also along the waterfront is INDEPENDENCE SEAPORT MUSEUM (phillyseaport.org). Go aboard the Olympia, an 1892 floating steel warship, and the Becuna, a World War II submarine, both docked outside.

DINE: Sample colonial-inspired dishes at CITY TAVERN (citytavern.com). Founded in 1773, it was frequented by the founding fathers. Visit CAMPO’S PHILLY CHEESESTEAKS (camposdeli.com) for local fare like cheesesteaks and hoagies (along with vegan and gluten-free options). THE BOURSE (theboursephilly.com), a global food hall in a landmark building, features Filipino, Ethiopian, Mexican, Philly-centric eateries and more.

Turn to page 86 for a timed historic district itinerary.
PARKWAY MUSEUMS DISTRICT

Centered around the magnificent Museum Mile on the Benjamin Franklin Parkway—majestically lined with flags from around the world—this district offers outstanding museums and plenty of Insta-worthy sights.

SEE: Enjoy an unconventional history lesson at EASTERN STATE PENITENTIARY (easternstate.org). Once the most expensive and famous prisons in the world, it housed notorious inmates like gangster Al Capone, whose cell you can view on the tour. PSST: Actor Steve Buscemi narrates the audio tour. Before visiting the world-renowned PHILADELPHIA MUSEUM OF ART (philamuseum.org), snap a photo with the Rocky Statue just outside. After charge up the Rocky Steps like the fictional southpaw once did.

DO: Stroll along a famous Philadelphia site, BOATHOUSE ROW (boathouserow.org), which is aglow with thousands of twinkling lights at night. The path is part of the SCHUYLKILL RIVER TRAIL (schuylkillrivertrail.com), which runs from Philadelphia to Valley Forge National Historical Park—perfect for jogging, inline skating, biking and other activities. An ideal spot for skyline photos while on the trail is the Schuylkill Banks Boardwalk, a 2,000-foot-long concrete pathway that stretches from Locust Street to the South Street Bridge.

DINE: The Comcast Technology Center sets a new bar for dining with a view at JEAN-GEORGES PHILADELPHIA (jean-georges.com) from Michelin-starred chef Jean-Georges Vongerichten, the restaurant occupies the 59th floor of the skyscraper and offers floor-to-ceiling windows and panoramic city views. On the ground floor, James Beard Award winner Greg Vernick's VERNICK FISH (vernickphilly.com) delivers refined seafood dishes and outdoor patio seating. PSST: For lighter fare or a quick bite, check out Vernick Coffee Bar in the building's second-floor lobby.

RITTENHOUSE SQUARE

Located in the heart of Center City, Rittenhouse Square is known for its green spaces, upscale shopping, charming brownstones and alfresco dining.

SEE: Venture up to ONE LIBERTY OBSERVATION DECK (phillyfromthetop.com) on the 57th floor of the skyscraper. In addition to sky-high views of the city, you can enjoy interactive exhibits detailing noteworthy moments in Philadelphia history. The MÜTTER MUSEUM (muttermuseum.org) displays fascinating scientific discoveries about the human body, with unique specimens, models and instruments, including a 139-skull display and pieces of Albert Einstein's brain.

DO: The ROSENBACH MUSEUM & GARDEN (rosenbach.org) holds the private collection of the Rosenbach brothers, noted rare books dealers, and counts among its treasures the only surviving copy of Benjamin Franklin's first Poor Richard's Almanack and more than 100 personal letters of George Washington. Stroll down the AVENUE OF THE ARTS (avenueofthearts.org), the section of South Broad Street from City Hall to Lombard Street that is home to many of the city's top theaters, including THE KIMMEL CENTER FOR THE PERFORMING ARTS (kimmelcenter.org), ACADEMY OF MUSIC (academyofmusic.org) and WILMA THEATER (wilmatheater.org).

DINE: Chefs Michael Solomonov and Yehuda Sichel found inspiration in the Jewish diaspora for their retro-style eatery ABE FISHER (abefisherphilly.com)—meaning chicken liver mousse shares the menu with veal schnitzel tacos. For prime people-watching on Rittenhouse Square, ask for an outdoor seat at PARC (parc-restaurant.com), a chic brasserie with a Parisian vibe and French bistro favorites morning to night.
WASHINGTON SQUARE/GAYBORHOOD/MIDTOWN VILLAGE

Lively dining spots and vibrant nightlife fill this quaint, historic neighborhood. Stroll through bustling Washington Square Park, or explore the quiet, cobblestone streets for some of Philadelphia’s most photogenic views.

SEE: Take in a show at WALNUT STREET THEATRE (walnutstreettheatre.org), America’s oldest theater. Since 1809, the National Historic Landmark has produced popular, top-quality stage productions. PENNSYLVANIA HOSPITAL (penmedicine.org) is the nation’s first hospital, founded in 1751 by Dr. Thomas Bond and Benjamin Franklin. View the oldest surgical amphitheater and medical library on a guided tour of the Pine Building.

DO: In the evening, check out some of the neighborhood’s most festive spots. Unwind at TIKI (tikiphilly.com), mixing classic and modern tropical drinks like the Mai Tai, Zombie and Singapore Sling. PSST: It has a rooftop bar. As Philadelphia’s oldest Irish pub, MCGILLIN’S OLDE ALE HOUSE (mcgillins.com) features a roaring fireplace, high-beamed ceilings and a unique collection of innkeepers’ licenses from 1871 on, all displayed above an antique mahogany bar.

DINE: Located in the historic Curtis Center, P.J. CLARKE’S (pjclarke’s.com) is a hot spot thanks to its large raw bar, happy hour specials and famous burgers. Head to VALANNI (valanni.com) for Mediterranean and Latin cuisine, like kabobs, empanadas and pork belly Cuban sliders plus seasonal craft cocktails.

SOUTH PHILADELPHIA

Known for its easy access to major sporting arenas, this energetic neighborhood is also a hit thanks to its multicultural and foodie attractions, like the Italian Market.

SEE: Immerse yourself in all things Swedish—art, history, culture and science—at the AMERICAN SWEDISH HISTORICAL MUSEUM (americanswedish.org). Marvel at one of the world’s greatest collection of racing sports cars at the SIMEONE FOUNDATION AUTOMOTIVE MUSEUM (simeonemuseum.org)—recently voted number one car collection in the world by the National Headquarters of the Automobile Club of France. Wander through the eclectic SOUTH STREET HEADHOUSE DISTRICT (southstreet.com) to explore the many shops and attractions, including Philadelphia’s Magic Gardens, an immersive outdoor and indoor mosaic installation.

DO: Pro sports, concerts and festivals keep the Sports Stadium Complex festive year round. Behind-the-scenes tours of LINCOLN FINANCIAL FIELD (lincolnfinancialfield.com), home of the Philadelphia Eagles, CITIZENS BANK PARK (phillies.com), home to the Philadelphia Phillies, and the WELLS FARGO CENTER (wellsfargocenterphilly.com), home court and rink for the 76ers and Flyers, are all available.

PSST: Sporting events are always a popular group event.

DINE: No ticket? No problem. XFINITY LIVE! (xfinitylive.com) has six different venues, including Victory Beer Hall, Broad Street Bullies Pub and NBC Sports Arena, and a 32-foot HDTV. Visit the site of America’s original cheesesteak rivalry: the corners of 9th and Passyunk in the Italian Market for two no-frills, walk-up counter spots: PAT’S KING OF STEAKS (patskingsofsteaks.com) and GENO’S STEAKS (genosteaks.com).
UNIVERSITY CITY/ WEST PHILADELPHIA

A hub for higher education, this neighborhood is home to top universities, including Drexel University and the University of Pennsylvania.

SEE: Embrace Japanese culture at SHOFUSO JAPANESE HOUSE & GARDEN (japanphilly.org). The serene site includes a traditional 17th-century replica home and a beautifully landscaped garden with a koi fish pond. Explore the priceless archaeological artifacts at the PENN MUSEUM (penn.museum), which recently reopened its Mexico & Central America and Africa galleries as part of a multimillion dollar museum renovation. PSST: The museum’s historic sphinx now greets you in its new home in the Main Entrance.

DO: Honoring the legacy of early-American botanist John Bartram, BARTRAM’S GARDEN (bartramsgarden.org) is a 45-acre site on the Schuylkill River that includes a botanical garden, wildflower meadow and Bartram’s 18th-century home. INSTITUTE OF CONTEMPORARY ART (icaphila.org) is a free museum that prides itself on bringing attention to new artists; it hosted Andy Warhol’s first solo museum show in 1965.

DINE: Sample a wide range of Indian classics at the lunch or dinner buffet at family-owned NEW DELHI INDIAN RESTAURANT (newdelhiweb.com), the city’s oldest-running Indian eatery. A modern dining option in the FMC Tower, WALNUT STREET CAFÉ (walnutstreetcafe.com) serves American plates breakfast through dinner.

NORTHERN LIBERTIES/ FISHTOWN/ NORTH PHILADELPHIA

Just north of Center City, these diverse neighborhoods are home to eclectic bars and restaurants, microdistilleries and live-music venues—plus the entry point for the Rail Park, a scenic trail that transformed an abandoned railroad viaduct.

SEE: Embark on a literary pilgrimage to the EDGAR ALLAN POE NATIONAL HISTORIC SITE (nps.gov/edal) to see the revered writer’s former home. Founded in 1855, the WAGNER FREE INSTITUTE OF SCIENCE (wagnerfreeinstitute.org) displays more than 100,000 natural history specimens in a historic building. Highlights include founder William Wagner’s personal mineral and fossil collections, as well as mounted skeletons, skulls and skins from species around the world.

DO: RIVERS CASINO PHILADELPHIA (riverscasinophiladelphia.com) offers slot machines, table games, poker and Hugo’s Frog Bar & Chop House, the only restaurant group in the country to have its own USDA Prime Certification. The steakhouse also has an extensive wine list, waterfront views and live entertainment. Find the largest canned beer selection in the city plus Skee-Ball, pool and a rotation of guest chefs at GARAGE FISHTOWN (garagephilly.com).

DINE: A meat-centric restaurant that does most of its butchery in-house, KENSINGTON QUARTERS (kensingtonquarters.com) operates with a whole-animal philosophy and sources ingredients from local farmers. A James Beard Award nominee helms the kitchen of YARDS BREWING COMPANY (yardsbrewing.com). Sample seasonal and signature ales—including the Ales of the Revolution, which pay tribute to the founding fathers—and enjoy upscale pub fare that uses the same hops and grains found in the beer.
NORTHWEST PHILADELPHIA

The vibrant neighborhoods in Northwest Philadelphia feature wooded trails, historic sites and booming business districts with independently owned shops, restaurants and bars.

SEE: Explore the 18 early-American sites of HISTORIC GERMANTOWN (freedomsbackyard.com). Tour the Johnson House Historic Site, once an Underground Railroad stop, learn about the Revolutionary battle fought there, discover the colonial gardens of Wyck House and more. Tour LEST WE FORGET MUSEUM OF SLAVERY (lwfsm.com), delving into the transatlantic slave trade.

DO: Follow the many trails that wind throughout FAIRMOUNT PARK (fairmountpark.org), one of the largest city-owned park systems in the world. The Northwest Philadelphia section includes Valley Green (or Wissahickon Valley Park)—with miles of trails that cut through forests and meadows along the Wissahickon Creek. Nearby, the 92-acre, historic MORRIS ARBORETUM OF THE UNIVERSITY OF PENNSYLVANIA (morrisarboretum.org) offers an ever-changing landscape of colorful gardens, champion trees, winding paths and water features.

DINE: In Chestnut Hill, enjoy PARIS BISTRO & JAZZ CAFÉ (parisbistro.net), which offers French bistro fare and live jazz music on the weekends. Stop at one of the many eateries along MAIN STREET MANAYUNK (manayunk.com), with a mix of casual and upscale restaurants ranging from pizza joints to New American dinner spots to Asian BYOBs.

SOUTHERN NEW JERSEY

A short drive across the Ben Franklin Bridge, South Jersey provides family-friendly attractions and discount shopping—perfect for a day trip. PSST: In the summer season, the RiverLink Ferry can take you from Penn’s Landing (board at the Independence Seaport Museum) to the Camden waterfront (next to Adventure Aquarium).

SEE: BATTLESHIP NEW JERSEY MUSEUM & MEMORIAL (battleshipnewjersey.org) is an Iowa-class battleship docked on the Camden waterfront. Having served in World War II, Korean War, Vietnam and Gulf War, it is the most-decorated battleship in U.S. history. The interactive tour on board this ship includes climbing up and down ladders and walking through passageways and narrow spaces, just as the ship’s crew once did.

DO: Explore the ocean and its inhabitants at ADVENTURE AQUARIUM (adventureaquarium.com), home to more than 8,500 aquatic species. Walk through a glass tunnel as more than 20 sharks swim through 550,000 gallons of water around you, journey to the Amazon through the interactive Piranha Falls exhibit, or spot hippos swimming around in the immersive Hippo Haven. You can save big at GLOUCESTER PREMIUM OUTLETS (premiumoutlets.com/gloucester), about a 30-minute drive from Philadelphia, with deep discounts on designer and name brands like Banana Republic, Fossil, J.Crew and Michael Kors.

Four Seasons Hotel Philadelphia at Comcast Center
HOTEL BOOM
Philadelphia is in the midst of a hotel building boom, with several properties under construction.

NEWLY OPENED
Four Seasons Hotel Philadelphia
Occupying floors 48 to 60 of the Comcast Technology Center—the tallest building in Philadelphia—this opulent hotel has 219 modern guest rooms, including 39 suites, more than 15,000 square feet of event space, a luxury spa and salon and an indoor infinity pool with floor-to-ceiling windows. Guests soar to the 60th-floor lobby in a glass elevator and are greeted by famed florist Jeff Leatham’s eye-popping floral artwork. Located on the 59th floor and boasting unmatched city views is Jean-Georges Vongerichten’s first Philadelphia restaurant, Jean-Georges, and on street level is acclaimed chef Greg Vernick’s Vernick Fish. fourseasons.com/philadelphia

Pod Philly
Just off Rittenhouse Square, the city’s first micro hotel features 252 “streamlined” rooms, ranging from 150 to 300 square feet. Several social spaces can be found throughout the property, including three restaurants: El Café, which serves coffee and pastries, Condesa, a Mexican-style eatery, and El Techo, a rooftop bar and taqueria, all from the restaurant team behind celebrated Pizzeria Beddia and Suraya. thepodhotel.com/pod-philly

RENOVATIONS/REBRANDING
Philadelphia Marriott Old City
Taking over the former Society Hill Sheraton is the Philadelphia Marriott Old City. Conveniently located near Independence National Historical Park, the refreshed property underwent a multimillion-dollar renovation and includes 364 guest rooms plus a Great Room, fitness center, 17,000-square-feet of meeting space and Society Commons, an all-day American restaurant. marriottoldcity.com

For up-to-date information on Philadelphia’s hotel development, visit discoverPHL.com/hotel-boom.
The Notary Hotel, Autograph Collection

Occupying the former City Hall Annex, The Notary features 499 rooms and preserves the original details of the 100-year-old building, including its marble floors, chandeliers and bronze molding, and blends it seamlessly with modern conveniences. The hotel’s name is a nod to the building’s history; built in 1926 and designed by Philip Johnson, it originally housed offices where locals could get documents notarized. The theme also plays out through small details, like a custom seal for guests’ card sleeves and a gift shop selling staff-selected local goods with a “Philadelphia Stamp of Excellence.”

Canopy by Hilton
Philadelphia Center City

Anticipated Opening: Early 2020
Taking over the 120-year-old Stephen Girard Building is a new Canopy by Hilton hotel. The 13-story hotel on 12th Street between Market and Chestnut streets will have 236 guest rooms and is part of the East Market mixed-use development. The building originally housed the offices for the board of the Stephen Girard Estates Trust.

COMING SOON

W and Element Hotels

Anticipated Opening: Early 2020
This dual-branded, 51-story property on 15th and Chestnut streets will house a 295-room W Hotel and a 460-room Element, each with separate lobbies. The W will have a 7,000-square-foot outdoor terrace with a bar, year-round heated pool and 45,000 square feet of meeting and event space. The Element will also feature 45,000 square feet of meeting space.

Live! Casino & Hotel Philadelphia

Anticipated opening: Late 2020
A $700 million hotel and casino is scheduled to open in the stadium complex in South Philadelphia, adjacent to Xfinity Live! The gaming center will feature more than 2,200 slots and electric table games, 150-plus live action table games and 200-plus upscale guest rooms—plus dining and entertainment options.

- State-of-the-art event spaces
- Only hotel connected to the Pennsylvania Convention Center
- Wired and wireless capabilities in all meeting rooms
- Two concierge levels and a full-service business center
- Two on-site restaurants—13 and Circ
- Adjacent to Reading Terminal Market

Situated in the heart of Center City, the Philadelphia Marriott Downtown commands a towering presence as the second-largest convention hotel in the Northeast. The hotel features 93,000 square feet of meeting space, complete with Franklin Exhibit Hall and the Grand Ballroom, seating 3,700. The hotel is conveniently connected to the Pennsylvania Convention Center via sky bridge. Whatever event you’re planning, use our smart and flexible space to deliver brilliant results. The days of pass-through lobbies are over. In the lobby, with Circ restaurant at its core, business and entertainment intersect in a multidimensional setting that inspires guests to engage, relax, retreat, work and play. Quiet zones are designed for relaxation, while other areas offer inviting settings for social business. Discover a hotel that intuitively understands what a guest needs to be productive and achieve success. Our stylish guest rooms are a haven of urban elegance, where crisp white bedding and high-speed Internet access illustrate a perfect harmony of comfort and technology. Ultimately, tick off what you’ve accomplished for the day as you settle into our ultra-comfortable beds. Dismissing the notion that hotel dining is far from satisfying, the Philadelphia Marriott Downtown offers plenty of food for thought. Inspired American cuisine defines the menu at 13, a street-side bistro where an enlivened ambience complements a contemporary venue that includes a private dining room. Circ, located in the center of the lobby, literally takes the dining experience 360 degrees, serving everything from a light bite, a full lunch and sushi, then transforming into one of downtown Philadelphia’s newest contemporary hot spots at night.

The Ritz-Carlton, Philadelphia recently completed a multimillion dollar hotel renewal project. The updates to the historic landmark include all new guest rooms and suites, Club Lounge, meeting and event space, and a refreshed lobby experience with a new restaurant, bar and lounge, Aqimero. The hotel features 36 breathtaking suites with stunning views of City Hall and the Avenue of the Arts as well as an exclusive Club Lounge with a dedicated concierge and continuous food and beverage presentations throughout the day. The soaring domed lobby, with marble steps and columns, lend a memorable note to meetings and special events. Meeting planners will find more than 26,000 square feet of event space, including nine Neoclassical meeting rooms supported by the latest in audiovisual technology. Banquets for up to 300 people may gather in the Petite and Grand Ballrooms with all-American catering options. Now open in the lobby of the hotel, Aqimero meshes the Latin American flavors of acclaimed chef Richard Sandoval in a modern sustainable way.
EXPECT THE UNEXPECTED

Consider one of these outside-the-box options for your next meeting, dinner or social outing.

Built more than 100 years ago by opera impresario Oscar Hammerstein, newly restored The Met Philadelphia livens the North Broad Street corridor with a stunning centerpiece theater. Gilded lighting, chandeliers and columns brighten the theater’s neoclassical atmosphere, and a two-level balcony and box seats flanking the orchestra are perfect for impressing attendees at a special event. Catering is provided exclusively through Brûlée Catering, and private affairs can be held in the elegant lobby, upscale Grand Salle, Orchestra or Theater/Stage for up to 3,000. Balcony suite catering and orchestra box rentals are also available during performances. themetphilly.com

Ornate historic spaces are a draw at One North Broad, situated in the majestic Masonic Temple across the street from City Hall. A National Historic Landmark, the interior is characterized by sweeping staircases, marbled floors, pillared walls and intricate art details. The Grand Ballroom seats up to 300, and along with the Grand Foyer, venue-wide can host receptions of up to 450. Also available are themed rooms constructed in the style of ancient architecture, such as the Egyptian Hall, Ionic Hall and Norman Hall. onenorthbroad.com

Occupying a former metal factory, The Fillmore, a 25,000-square-foot live-music venue in Fishtown, offers top-notch productions and an industrial-chic vibe. Concrete features, graffiti and overhead chandeliers make for a cool atmosphere, and the space can accommodate groups from 50 to 3,000. Rounding out the experience is state-of-the-art lighting and sound, full-service event production, and custom menus and mixology programs. thefillmorephilly.com

One of the city’s most colorful event venues is Philadelphia’s Magic Gardens, an indoor-outdoor mosaic art installation that spans a half-block on South Street. Creator Isaiah Zagar incorporated handmade tiles, bottles, bicycle wheels, mirrors and more to create his fanciful labyrinthine sculpture. Private events can take place in both the outdoor garden and indoor gallery and offers a blank canvas for event planners to design their own intimate affair of up to 50. phillymagicgardens.org

An elegant Beaux-Arts-style building near Rittenhouse Square and home to the Mütter Museum, the College of Physicians of Philadelphia was designed to embody the classicism of 17th century England, with a columned marble rotunda, grand staircase and a private medicinal garden with seasonal blooms. Tours of the museum can be arranged for guests. collegeofphysicians.org

Water Works is an iconic landmark offering both indoor and seasonal outdoor event spaces—as well as unmatched views of Boathouse Row and the Philadelphia Museum of Art. Situated at the foot of the museum, the picturesque neo-classical structure on the Schuylkill River offers lavish spaces for guests, including a columned walkway, vintage gazebo and a tented veranda. cescaphe.com/water-works

The newly renovated Moshulu is uniquely situated aboard a tall ship. Docked on the Delaware River on Penn’s Landing, the historic ship’s recent facelift added a new large lobby bar and a refreshed main dining area (with much of the design inspired by fashion designer Ralph Lauren’s personal yacht). In addition to unsurpassed views of the city skyline and waterfront, the Moshulu offers an American menu with seafood influences, plus prime steaks and hand-rolled sushi. moshulu.com

Greenery abounds in the Horticulture Center, a modern exhibition hall, greenhouse and garden in Fairmount Park. Situated on the site of a former 1876 Centennial Exposition building, the glass greenhouse acts as an impressive, verdant backdrop for indoor events while the outdoor gardens provides an insta-worthy area for guests to explore. hortevents.com

At The College of Physicians of Philadelphia, history and architecture combine to create a truly unique and elegant event. Located in Philadelphia’s charming Rittenhouse-Fitler Historic District, this beautiful New Beaux-Arts style building, constructed in 1908, has the unique distinction of being home to the oldest medical society in the country (founded in 1787) and the renowned Mütter Museum. As guests enter, the magnificent columned Marble Rotunda, with its view of a classic grand staircase, sets the stage for any occasion.

Many of our spaces are interconnected, permitting events to flow through multiple rooms with ease. The grandest of the spaces, Mitchell Hall features a 32-foot rococo ceiling, large leaded glass windows, and a period dais. Adjoined to the Ashhurst Room, together they can accommodate large, multi-staged events.

With Catering By Design, our exclusive catering and hospitality partner, comes an entirely new way of entertaining that blends expertly prepared cuisine with striking conceptual design. Our event professionals walk you through every step of the event, from decor to your customized menu, entertainment and facilities, to the day-of details.

ONLINE > pafa.org

- Unique entertaining
- Convenient and central location
- Intimate and large spaces
- Indoor and outdoor options
- New auditorium

The Historic Landmark Building houses the oldest art school and museum in the country with world renowned architecture by Furness & Hewitt. The ambiance of the memorable space offers unique entertaining locations for intimate & larger groups. The Hamilton Building is an expansive turn-of-the-century car showroom that has found new life, reinvented as a modern gallery space with views of downtown and direct proximity to the Pennsylvania Convention Center. Both buildings offer the unique opportunity to dine amongst the rotating art exhibitions.
The Science History Institute’s Conference Center offers more than 13,500 square feet of newly renovated meeting space (with an additional 4,500 square feet of outdoor space) suited for every meeting and event need. Our eight dynamic conference center rooms are equipped with state-of-the-art audiovisual equipment, high-speed connectivity, and a range of configuration possibilities. Overlooking Independence Park, our Otto Röhm and Otto Hans Room blends high-tech and history. Perched above our museum, the adaptable Overlook Lounge is perfect for unwinding between meetings or hosting a chic reception. Whether your event is large, small or any option in between, our dedicated staff is here to make your event truly special. We’ll assist with coordinating vendors and rentals while you can relax knowing your event is in the hands of experienced professionals. Our conference center is located at the heart of the historic district, within walking distance of the Liberty Bell, Independence Hall, and many other great Philadelphia attractions and museums.

Featuring 25,000 square feet of flexible design space, The Fillmore Philadelphia is the perfect blend of rock and elegance. Having hosted the biggest names in music, The Fillmore has unlimited entertainment access, full-service event production, state-of-the-art lighting and sound, custom menus and mixology. This unique venue has an atmosphere that celebrates extraordinary hospitality from the industrial music hall with brick walls and grand chandeliers to the VIP rooms with local artwork and VW Bus transformed into a DJ booth.

SIZE IT UP
Philadelphia offers plenty of dining options to suit your group’s size.

GROUPS UP TO 50
Tucked away in a brick townhouse in Midtown Village, Vetri Cucina, from James Beard Award winner Marc Vetri, is renowned for its polished Italian dishes like tagliolini with lobster and ‘nduja. In the private second-floor dining space, groups of 10 or less can enjoy the chef’s counter experience, up to 18 can be seated for the formal dining experience and up to 45 can enjoy a reception-style event. vetricucina.com

A colorful American bistro with French flair, Louie Louie in University City offers groups a mix of semi-private dining spaces—intimate parties of up to 10 can be held in the Left Bank Lounge, a reception of 25 to 75 in the Salon, or a seated event for 20 to 60 guests in the Rose Dining Room and Patio. Lunch and dinner options include grilled filet mignon with garlic pommes puree and trout amandine, while brunch can include a croissant breakfast sandwich or blackened salmon BLT. louielouie.restaurant

Stephen Starr and Aimee Olexy’s third collaboration, The Love in Rittenhouse Square, is a charming neighborhood restaurant serving seasonal American food, like buttermilk fried chicken and Santa Fe salmon. Groups can dine in private in The Loft, which can accommodate up to 20 for a seated event and up to 45 for a standing reception. The space is available for dinner everyday, lunch Monday to Friday, and brunch on Saturday. theloverestaurant.com

GROUPS OF 50 TO 100
Winner of the James Beard Award for Outstanding Restaurant for 2019, Zahav in Old City can host private events for up to 90 people with a whole restaurant buyout. (Smaller groups of 9 to 30 can reserve private rooms.) Michael Solomonov’s small-plate menu draws inspiration from the multicultural influences on Israeli cuisine—from Eastern European to Persian—and is renowned for its creamy house-made hummus, charcoal-grilled skewers and laffa bread baked-to-order in a wood-fired oven. zahavrestaurant.com

Nestled in the Morris Hotel off Washington Square, M Restaurant provides an elegant indoor dining space and a quaint outdoor garden perfect for private events. Occupying the historic 1787 Reynolds-Morris House—designed in the same architectural style as Independence Hall—smaller groups can dine in history in the original Morris House Library, Reynolds Room or main dining room, which boast original working fireplaces and decorative colonial flourishes. For larger affairs, a tented space in the garden can host up to 102 seated or 130 for a buffet. mrestaurantphilly.com

Since 1900, Ralph’s Italian Restaurant in South Philadelphia has been a go-to for classic red gravy dishes. Family-owned for four generations, the eatery occupies several neighboring row houses and can accommodate groups up to 100, serving Italian staples like veal parmigiana, penne a la vodka or calamari in red sauce, family-style or per person. ralphsrestaurant.com

For more group dining options, visit discoverPHL.com/dine.
GROUPS OVER 100

Groups of up to 170 can be accommodated at Mission Taqueria, a modern Mexican cantina near Rittenhouse Square. In addition to a taco-centric menu (think fried mahi mahi or pork al pastor on house-made tortillas), flavorful ceviches, expertly crafted margaritas and communal tables offer a festive atmosphere perfect for a casual group affair. missiontaqueria.com

A wood-burning Latin grill in the Ritz-Carlton, Philadelphia, Aqimero offers shareable plates highlighting Latin flavor and local ingredients, and is a collaboration with acclaimed chef and restaurateur Richard Sandoval and local chef de cuisine Vincent Giannini. Situated in a 1908 neoclassical former bank building, the main dining room can hold up to 125 for a reception and affords views of a wood-fired grill in the kitchen. For bigger groups, the majestic lounge can host up to 300 in an open environment. aqimero.com

Inspired by traditional German beer halls, Brauhaus Schmitz on South Street can accommodate private parties from 10 to 200, with buffet, seated lunch or dinner, and cocktail party options. Guests can enjoy authentic German dishes like pretzels dipped in beer cheese for appetizers, and house-made sausages or schnitzel for main courses. The restaurant also boasts the largest German beer list in the country. brauhausschmitz.com

Philadelphia’s premier demonstration kitchen offering unique, hands-on cooking events.

CUSTOMIZABLE CONTENT FOR ATTENDEES

The PHLCVB offers itineraries that can be tailored to your event and used as destination content on your website.

HISTORY BUFFS

There’s no shortage of historic sites in the City of Brotherly Love. Be inspired with colonial and early American landmarks and immerse yourself in the birthplace of America.

ONE TO TWO HOURS: Learn about the city’s past and its role in shaping the nation at Independence National Historical Park. Tour Independence Hall, where the Declaration of Independence was signed and the U.S. Constitution was debated and adopted. Tip: Free timed-entry tickets to Independence Hall are available online. After, swing by the Liberty Bell to see the cracked icon of American freedom up close and explore the Benjamin Franklin Museum, located in Franklin Court, the site of the revered statesman’s former home. nps.gov/inde

HALF DAY: The Museum of the American Revolution tells the remarkable story of the U.S.’s founding through original artifacts in immersive settings. (A highlight of the tour is George Washington’s actual headquarters tent.) After, walk in the footsteps of early Americans along Elfreth’s Alley, the nation’s oldest continuously inhabited street. Located in Old City between 2nd Street and North Front Street, the quaint pedestrian-only alley is lined with 32 Federal and Georgian-style homes. Two adjacent 1755 homes now serve as a museum and gift shop for the block. [amrevmuseum.org, elfrethsalley.org](http://amrevmuseum.org, elfrethsalley.org)

FULL DAY: National Constitution Center is a one-of-a-kind museum dedicated to the groundbreaking document. Inside, visitors will find rare artifacts as well as interactive and high-tech exhibits about the U.S. Constitution and its impact on the world. TIP: The center’s website has a schedule of special events, including civic holiday celebrations and discounted or free admission days. constitutioncenter.org

In the evening, embark on a spooky, candlelit stroll through Independence National Historical Park with Ghost Tour of Philadelphia and discover the secrets and mysteries that haunt the city. ghosttour.com
ONE TO TWO HOURS: Just steps from the Pennsylvania Convention Center is one of the city’s newest attractions: Fashion District Philadelphia, a go-to for fashionable finds, engaging entertainment and modern dining. The destination is home to retailers like Century 21, Ulta, H&M, and Nike Factory Store, as well as City Winery, a restaurant that doubles as a live-music venue. Also on-site are a dine-in AMC movie theater and Round 1, an upscale bowling alley with ping pong, pool tables and arcade games. Also connected to the Convention Center is Reading Terminal Market, a foodie paradise and one of the oldest continuously operating farmers markets in the country. With its maze of more than 80 merchants and diverse eateries—serving Pennsylvania Dutch, Greek, Asian, local specialties and more—the market is perfect for a quick lunch or to pick up souvenirs of your trip to Philadelphia. fashiondistrictphiladelphia.com, readingterminalmarket.org

HALF DAY: Head to Rittenhouse Row, just off Rittenhouse Square, for an array of local boutiques and national retailers. Look for favorites like Joan Shepp, which carries designer women’s clothing, shoes and handbags, and designer department store Boyds—dubbed “The Last Great Clothing Store” by The New York Times. Nearby, the The Shops at Liberty Place offers national retailers like J.Crew, Loft Outlet and Bloomingdale’s Outlet. rittenhouserow.org, joanshepp.com, boydsphila.com, shopsatliberty.com

FULL DAY: Local retailers abound in Old City, from one-of-a-kind home accessory stores to trendy fashion boutiques. Stroll through the cobblestone streets to find shops offering cool, handmade items bursting with regional pride, like Philadelphia Independents. The shop specializes in apparel, art, accessories and more—all made by area artists. philadelphiaindependents.com
ART ENTHUSIASTS

World-famous museums, intimate galleries, outdoor installations—you’ll find countless ways to explore the arts in Philadelphia.

ONE TO TWO HOURS: Just across the street from the Pennsylvania Convention Center is the Pennsylvania Academy of the Fine Arts (PAFA)—the first museum and fine arts school in America. PAFA boasts a renowned collection of 19th- and 20th-century American artwork, including pieces by Winslow Homer, Cecilia Beaux and Thomas Eakins, as well as contemporary artists like Philip Pearlstein and Jennifer Bartlett. Designed by Frank Furness, the 1876 Victorian Gothic landmark is a work of art itself—look for the giant paintbrush out front. pafa.org

HALF DAY: Philadelphia’s grand thoroughfare, the flag- and tree-lined Benjamin Franklin Parkway, is home to some of the world’s top museums. At the base of the parkway is the majestic Philadelphia Museum of Art. The iconic Greek Revival building houses an immense collection, ranging from Renaissance Masters to renovated and interpreted South Asian galleries to masterpieces by Van Gogh and Brancusi. philamuseum.org

The perfect complement to the Philadelphia Museum of Art is a stop at either the Rodin Museum or the Barnes Foundation, both within walking distance. Easily identified by The Thinker statue out front, the Rodin Museum showcases the work of celebrated French sculptor Auguste Rodin and boasts one of the largest collections of his art outside Paris. The Barnes Foundation is one of the world’s greatest collections of Impressionist, Post-Impressionist and early modern paintings, including the largest holdings of paintings by Renoir and Cézanne. rodinmuseum.org, barnesfoundation.org

FULL DAY: Explore Philadelphia’s diverse outdoor art by trolley, train or guided walking tour. Mural Arts Philadelphia, the nation’s largest public art program, has produced more than 4,000 colorful murals. Tours depart from PAFA. muralarts.org
FAMILY FUN

Kids in tow? Check out one of Philadelphia’s many family-friendly attractions.

ONE TO TWO HOURS: A fully reconstructed T-Rex greets families in the Dinosaur Hall at The Academy of Natural Sciences of Drexel University. Science enthusiasts can also study lifelike dioramas, hunt for fossils in the Big Dig or marvel at monarchs in the butterfly room at the interactive museum. ansp.org

HALF DAY: The Philadelphia Zoo, America’s first, offers families the opportunity to get an up-close look at some of nature’s most beautiful animals. Visitors are awestruck by lions and Amur tigers as they stroll overhead through a network of elevated pathways at Big Cat Crossing. Other favorites abound, like the Treehouse, petting zoo, carousel and free-roaming peacocks. Thrilling families since 1976, the Please Touch Museum engages children through hands-on exhibits as they discover the power of learning through play. Highlights include the Rocket Room, Wonderland exhibit, Imagination Playground and River Adventures. The museum’s newest permanent exhibit, Cents and Sensibility, makes learning how to earn, save, spend and share money fun. philadelphiazoo.org, pleasetouchmuseum.org

FULL DAY: For children and families with curious minds, the Franklin Institute welcomes visitors to discover the mysteries of the human brain, walk through a giant heart, feel the forces of flight or challenge themselves in an escape room. Families can take in a movie in the four-story IMAX theater or reach for the stars in the planetarium. Be sure to check out Now/Next, a changing exhibit that’s inspired by pop culture and emerging trends in science and technology. fi.edu
