THE 3-DAY ICONIC PHILADELPHIA

---

From historic sites to Michelin-rated meals, Philadelphia offers an array of memorable experiences. Explore the city's renowned museums, expansive parks, and vibrant, diverse neighborhoods. Discover the essence of Philly's charm and cultural richness.

DAY 1

INDEPENDENCE VISITOR CENTER

An essential starting point for any Philadelphia visit. Get tickets for local attractions and map out your journey with trip-planning help in 12 languages and an interactive, digital Welcome Wall.

INDEPENDENCE HALL

Take a $1, ticketed tour of this UNESCO World Heritage Site where America's Founders signed the Declaration of Independence and the U.S. Constitution.

LIBERTY BELL

The symbol of American Independence is free to see (and snap a selfie with), as are the accompanying exhibits inside the Liberty Bell Center.

NATIONAL CONSTITUTION CENTER

The only museum in the nation devoted to the U.S. Constitution examines the document via special exhibits and programming just two blocks north from where it was signed.

READING TERMINAL MARKET

With more than 80 merchants — including several Pennsylvania Amish favorites — this iconic landmark is one of America's oldest and largest public markets and a must-see for visitors looking to sample a taste of Philadelphia.

CITY HALL & DILWORTH PARK

Take a photo of the architectural treasure that is City Hall, then head up to the top of the tower for a guided tour and panoramic views of the city.

LOVE PARK

Strike a pose in front of Robert Indiana's iconic sculpture at the gateway to the Benjamin Franklin Parkway and Philadelphia's Museum Mile.

MCGILLIN'S OLDE ALE HOUSE

Raise a glass at Philadelphia's oldest continuously operating tavern. Since 1860, McGillin's has been pouring pints and welcoming guests with classic pub fare and true Philly spirit.

DAY 2

HOP-ON HOP-OFF BUS TOURS

Take in historic city sights from a comfy seat on this double-decker bus, with entertaining live English-speaking guides or audio commentary available in multiple languages.

CAMPO'S & SONNY'S

Two of the must-try sandwich shops in Old City serve up the classic Philly cheesesteak just steps apart on Market Street, where fresh rolls, sizzling beef, and melted cheese draw locals and visitors alike.

PRESIDENT'S HOUSE SITE

Once home to Presidents George Washington and John Adams as the nation's first executive residence, this site was also home to nine enslaved people who built and labored within its walls.

ELFRETH'S ALLEY

Stroll down the nation's oldest continuously inhabited residential street and admire the carefully preserved 18th-century homes that line this historic block in Old City.

MUSEUM OF THE AMERICAN REVOLUTION

Relive the story of the American Revolution and the early days of the United States with interactive exhibits, including George Washington's war tent.

AFRICAN AMERICAN MUSEUM IN PHILADELPHIA

Study exhibits in the nation's first institution in a major city dedicated to the life, art, and works of African Americans.

MURAL ARTS PHILADELPHIA

Take a tour of the nation's largest public art program to learn more about the citywide movement that has resulted in over 4,000 colorful murals in neighborhoods throughout the city.

FRANKLIN FOUNTAIN

Get treated to an old school scoop from a turn-of-the-century ice cream parlor, just a few doors away from the nation's oldest continuously operating candy store.

MOSHULU

End the evening along the Delaware River with dinner and drinks aboard the Moshulu, the world's oldest and largest square-rigged sailing vessel still afloat.

DAY 3

SCHUYLKILL RIVER TRAIL

Start with a morning walk, jog, run or bike ride along this 20+ mile trail, which weaves through downtown and into Fairmount Park.

PHILADELPHIA MUSEUM OF ART

Scale the 72 "Rocky Steps" and then enter one of the largest art museums in the nation, with new spaces to explore and a collection that spans 2,000 years.

BOATHOUSE ROW

By day or night, Boathouse Row is one of Philadelphia's most iconic views. Find the best vantage point on the western shore of the Schuylkill River.

FAIRMOUNT PARK

Head to one of the many trailheads in the expansive Fairmount Park for a hike, or be immersed in the Fairmount Park Horticulture Center greenhouse.

LUNCH IN FAIRMOUNT

While visiting the attractions in the Fairmount district, find a quaint lunch stop amidst an array of flavor, from breweries to cafes to international eateries.

EASTERN STATE PENITENTIARY

Navigate the crumbling cellblocks of what was once the most expensive prison ever built and learn more about former inhabitants including notorious gangster Al Capone.

RODIN MUSEUM

Revel in one of the largest collections of sculptor Auguste Rodin's works outside of Paris, including a six-foot cast of The Thinker.

NIGHTLIFE

Tapas, hidden speakeasies, rooftop bars, and more — there are plenty of experiences to seek out in Philadelphia after the sun goes down.

---

HOTEL | THE BELLEVUE

Known as the Grande Dame of Broad Street, the Bellevue Hotel's architecture is a celebration of French Renaissance details and classic luxury. The Bellevue's sophisticated rooms and suites offer a tranquil retreat from the energy of the city.

---

THE 3-DAY FOODIE ITINERARY

---

To say the dining scene in Philadelphia is revolutionary is an understatement. Get a true taste of Philadelphia's diverse cuisine over a three-day stay.

DAY 1

CHERISH A CHEESESTEAK

The city's trademark sandwich is a mouthwatering masterpiece of tender pieces of beef combined with melted cheesy goodness on a fresh Italian roll. Don't skip Pat's and Geno's, Philadelphia's two most famous cheesesteaks, which are cooked right across the street from one another. Dalessandro's is a classic spot, while Jim's South Street, Cleavers in Rittenhouse Square, and Angelo's Pizzeria in South Philly each serve up their own beloved takes and have become the ultimate go-to for many locals.

REFUEL WITH PLANT-BASED PLATES

It's all things plants, all the time, at 100% plant-based local eateries, HipCityVeg, Bar Bombon, and Charlie Was a Sinner. Enjoy a meal at Vedge, which has a seasonal menu featuring items made with fresh, locally sourced vegetables. Other plant-based options include the vegan breakfast staples served at The Tasty, or the falafel sandwiches, salads and tahini shakes at Goldie.

AWARD-WINNING DINING

Philadelphia's dining scene shines with excellence at every turn. Indulge in the inventive tasting menus of the city's three MICHELIN-starred restaurants: Friday Saturday Sunday, a reimagined neighborhood spot rooted in local ingredients and creativity; Her Place Supper Club, an intimate, dinner-party-style experience shaped by French, Italian and Jewish influences; and Provenance, a refined Society Hill destination blending French technique with subtle Korean inspiration.

ROOFTOP BARS

Take in the picturesque Philadelphia skyline while sipping tasteful cocktails and craft beer. Assembly Rooftop offers year-round views of the Benjamin Franklin Parkway, Bok Bar serves cool cocktails atop a former elementary school building in South Philadelphia from April through October, and taqueria El Techo has a state-of-the-art retractable roof for year-round al fresco drinking and dining.

VERNICK FISH

DAY 2

FARMERS MARKETS

To stock up on fruits, vegetables, and other farm-grown goods, shop at the Headhouse Farmers Market and Rittenhouse Farmers Market. In FDR Park, find Lao, Vietnamese, Indonesian, and more vendors at the seasonal Southeast Asian Market.

PREMIER PIZZA

Restaurateur Joe Beddia has made a name for himself serving the “best pizza in the country” at Pizzeria Beddia. Barbuzzo offers pies with brussels sprout leaves, guanciale, and truffled egg.

POP BY A SEASONAL POP-UP

Enjoy a drink on the Delaware River Waterfront at Spruce Street Harbor Park or Cherry Street Pier. Visit Independence Beer Garden, an expansive space with over 40 regional and domestic craft beers on tap.

ACCLAIMED CULINARY GEMS

The city’s collection of award-winning and acclaimed culinary gems are proof of Philadelphia’s dining prestige. Vetri Cucina is one of the most respected and influential Italian restaurants in the country. With bold Southern Thai flavors, Kalaya delivers a vibrant experience that continues to earn national acclaim, while Vernick Fish offers refined coastal cuisine, pristine seafood, and elegant dining.

DAY 3

THE BEST OF BRUNCH

White Dog Cafe, one of the pioneers in the city’s sustainable, farm-to-table movement, has been serving local and organically sourced favorites since 1983. At Sabrina’s Café, try soul-satisfying plates of breakfast staples.

BE A HOAGIE HERO

Every deli has its own unique spin on the Italian hoagie, typically filled with meat, cheeses, lettuce, tomato, onions, and oil and vinegar. Some of the best hoagie spots can be found at Cosmi’s Deli, Tommy Dinic’s, and Ricci’s Hoagies.

CHINATOWN

From bustling dim sum spots to cozy noodle houses, Chinatown is a culinary haven for those seeking flavorful and traditional dishes served at Sang Kee Peking Duck House, Vietnam Restaurant, Yakitori Boy, and E Mei.

CRAFT BREWERIES

Yards Brewing operates a wind-powered brewery and taproom with a full beer-friendly food menu, and regular behind-the-scenes tours of the brewing operations. Philadelphia’s first micro-brewery, Dock Street Brewing Company is known for staples and fearless experimental beers.

HOTEL | ANNA & BEL

Nestled in the heart of Philadelphia’s vibrant and trendy Fishtown neighborhood, Anna & Bel is a meticulously restored 18th-century women’s asylum, given new life as a 50-room haven for the discerning traveler. The guest rooms, acclaimed on-site restaurant, bar, pool, and sauna all offer a unique blend of warmth, style, and modern luxury.

THE THIRD WEEKEND IN NOVEMBER

The Philadelphia Marathon, renowned for its scenic route and vibrant spectators, attracts runners from around the globe each year to race one of the fastest marathon courses in the country.

PHILADELPHIA THANKSGIVING DAY PARADE

THANKSGIVING DAY

The oldest Thanksgiving Day parade in the country, this family-friendly parade kicks off the holiday season with giant floats, balloons, marching bands, dancers, and other performers from across the country. Performances take place in front of the iconic Rocky Steps and Philadelphia Museum of Art.

CHRISTMAS VILLAGE

NOVEMBER - DECEMBER

Philadelphia's Christmas Village is one of the city's most beloved annual holiday traditions. An authentic German Christmas village brings amusements, food, and drink vendors, and more than 100 independent artisans to LOVE Park and City Hall's North Apron and Courtyard.

PICTURE PERFECT PHILLY

From skyline views to street art, every corner of Philadelphia bursts with color and life. If you want to showcase your trip on social media, here's a checklist of the most photogenic spots in Philadelphia.

THE LOOK OF ROMANCE @ LOVE PARK #LOVEPARK

Shot from the City Hall side, you can perfectly frame the Philadelphia Art Museum in the silver platform box where the sculpture rests

STEP BACK IN TIME @ ELFRETH'S ALLEY #ELFRETHSALLEY #HISTORICPHILLY

The cobblestones and colorful 18th-century homes of the oldest continuously inhabited residential street in the United States make every angle picture-perfect.

WHAT'S AT STEAK? @ PAT'S AND GENO'S #WHIZWIT #GENOSORPATS

Head to Passyunk and 9th, where the city's cheesesteak rivalry began at Pat's and Geno's - both open 24/7 and lit up by vibrant neon lights at night.

BECOME THE CHAMP @ THE ROCKY STEPS #RUNTHESTEPS #YOADRIAN

Pump your arms in the air like a champ at the top of the Philadelphia Museum of Art, and take in the glorious view of Philadelphia's skyline.

GAME ON!

Philadelphia's die-hard dedication to local sports teams is without comparison. Philadelphians are extremely passionate about their sports - it's part of the city's DNA! There's no better place to see a game, feel the energy of the crowd, and cheer alongside fans who pour their hearts into every play.

GIVE THE GIFT OF PHILADELPHIA

If you are looking for the perfect souvenir to bring back home, budget some time to browse around Open House, Philadelphia Independents, The Sly Stallone Shop, and Ali's Wagon or pick up one of these only-from-Philadelphia gifts.

FOR THE SPORTS FANATIC:

Pick up an authentic jersey from one of the fan stores at the stadiums or find your favorite pick around the city. Shop Mitchell & Ness for iconic throwback and authentic gear, Rally House Broad Street for all things Philly sports. Team Chain offers a bold, modern take on fan fashion — uniquely American and rising fast. Even Philadelphia International Airport has shops stocked with local team merch, and for something more niche, check out Minor Details Philly in Fishtown.

FOR THE HISTORY BUFF:

Do not miss the Independence Visitor Center's extensive gift shop filled to the brim with Philly finds, including a replica Declaration of Independence and a mini-Liberty Bell.

FOR THE KIDS:

Peruse the many options at The Franklin Institute or the Academy of Natural Sciences of Drexel University gift shops, like field guides, science kits, and fossils, and stop by the SEPTA Gift Shop for a wooden SEPTA train or trolley to add to the little ones' set.

FOR THE FOODIE:

Lore's Chocolates in the Historic District has more than 100 chocolates and confections, including ones inspired by Robert Indiana's LOVE sculpture. 4th Street Cookies is a must for its oversized, freshly baked classics. Handmade sweets and nostalgic charm meet at the nation's oldest continuously operating candy shop, Shane Confectionary. Di Bruno Bros. is the go-to for cheese, cured meats, and fine specialty foods, while Fishtown Pickle Project is perfect to try the flavor-packed brines. Bluecoat American Dry Gin, Philadelphia's own citrus-forward spirit is distilled also in the heart of Fishtown. If still indecisive, you can always opt for a gift basket filled with local favorites at the Pennsylvania General Store in the Reading Terminal Market.

FOR THE ARTS ENTHUSIAST:

Pick up handcrafted bags, pins, scarves, and more at The Fabric Workshop; a print of the Matisse masterpiece at the Barnes Foundation gift shop or a quirky gift at the on-site shop of Philadelphia's Magic Gardens.
